NEWS OF THE DAY.

THE WAR.

—Everybody knows what persistent misrepresentation the organs of Jeff. Davis in this city have followed the National War Committee. Their constant iteration of entirely unfounded charges provokes (not necessarily, perhaps, a retort from that Committee. They officially say, in answer to the distinct charges of The Journal of Commerce in reference to the meeting at Providence, that they held no private conference whatever from which Gov. Sprague was excluded; that their interview with the New-England Governors was in the public parlors of the City Hotel in Providence; that no proposal was made to "hold back the soldiers of New-England from the call of the President;" no proposal was made to "organize a corps for Gen. Fremont," or for any other General, for any purpose, either private or public; no proposal was made to "concede the President into any Emancipation scheme, by refusing to forward any more regiments;" no proposal was made to "appoint any Radical Abolition," or any other political stripe of officers, to either new or old regiments in New-England or elsewhere; no proposal was made to "call any Convention" with reference to any plan for any Northern or other Union; and no reference was made to the "New-York Fall election," or any other election; in short, that each of these, and the other statements in reference to the action of the Committee, contained in the article in The Journal of Commerce of Monday, are wholly unwarrantable and untrue.

—Gov. Berry, of New-Hampshire, under his own signature states, that having been requested to read The New-York Herald of Monday, "so far as it describes the purpose and objects of the late Conference of Governors at Altoona, and happening to be the only member of that Conference now in this city, I do not hesitate to say that the implications contained in the correspondence from Altoona are without foundation in fact. The meeting was characterized by the most kindly feeling, harmony of sentiment, and unanimity of action in support of the Government in a most vigorous prosecution of the war for the suppression of the Rebellion." Of course, Gov. Berry's denial was quite unnecessary. Nobody ever believed a word of The Sentinel's assertions concerning that Convention; it was patent to the most casual observer that The Herald deliberately did its worst to misrepresent and scandalize the members and their designs—to make the utmost possible capital for its master, Jefferson Davis.

—Major-Gen. Wm. Nelson was killed yesterday in Louisville by Brig-Gen. J. C. Davis. Very little has been transpired by which we can judge of the circumstances which led to this most melancholy result. Our special correspondent says that Davis met Nelson in the hall of the Galt House, and attempted to speak with him—that Nelson refused to listen, turning away from him—that Davis followed and again addressed him, when Nelson turned and said, "Do you wish to insult me, you cowardly puppy?" and struck him over the head. Davis retired, and got a pistol from another officer, and then pushed through the crowd and shot Nelson through the breast, mortally wounding him. Nelson walked up stairs, saying that he was murdered, and died in about half an hour. From all the statements thus far at hand, it seems that Gen. Nelson treated Gen. Davis with unbearable insult.

—From Augusta, Ky., we are informed that, on a date not named, the place was attacked by 600 mounted Rebels, with two cannon, under the command of a brother of the guerrilla John Morgan. The Union forces, under Col. Bradford, numbering 120 men, took refuge in houses and fired from windows, killing and wounding 90 of the Rebels. Among the Rebels killed were three captains, one of them a younger brother of John Morgan. Among the Rebels mortally wounded was Lieut.-Col. Prentice, a son of George D. Prentice, editor and proprietor of The Louisville Journal. Our loss was 9 killed and 15 wounded. The remainder of our forces were taken prisoners. Subsequently a Union force from Mayville intercepted and attacked the Rebels, when they fled in a perfect panic. The result of the pursuit has not yet been learned.

—By way of Fort Monroe, we have a few items from Richmond papers of the 27th inst. A few days ago five men were arrested in Mobile Bay, trying to escape to the Union lines. One was subsequently hanged—having, it is said, plans of the Mobile defenses in his possession. The Rebel army is daily increasing by accessions of stragglers and conscripts, but Gen. Lee keeps his future plans secret. Richmond was being cleared of Union prisoners; but few were yet to be sent away: 500 from Antietam were soon expected. The Emancipation proclamation was known, but no comments had been made upon it.

—A certain Major in the army has been dismissed from the service by the President for boasting of the alleged plan to prolong the war until the next Presidential election, and either settle it upon some basis of compromise, so as to restore the old Pro-Slavery Democratic rule. This Major gave this plan as the reason why Gen. McClellan did not pursue the Rebel army after the battle of Antietam, which, of course, is a base slander upon the distinguished General, as well as upon the army under his charge. From this dismissal it may be inferred that damming the Government and its policy is not hereafter to be the chief employment of army officers.

—The publication of the address of the loyal Governors to the President is deferred in order to give an opportunity to those who were not at the Altoona Convention to affix their signatures. The statement that the reserve force of 100,000 men, the organization of which was one of the suggestions made orally to the President, is a sort of home guard, is a misrepresentation. This force is intended to be in fact, as in name, a reserve for our armies to draw from in case of need.

—A number of disloyal Missourians in Carroll County in that State have been heavily fined for guerrilla practices. They have ten days in which to produce the money, when, if they fail, their property will be seized.

—The statement that regiments raised expressly for Gen. Sigel had not been given to him is confirmed by the testimony of the Governors of six States—Governors Yates, Tod, Blair, Kirkwood,

Andrew, and Sprague—who are anxious to know why this is so, and are urging the authorities to carry out the promise which they made at the time the permission to raise regiments in each of their States for Gen. Sigel was given.

—The work of enrollment has been completed, and clerks and copyists are now engaged in perfecting the records. Judge Advocate General Anthony, under whose direction the work has been done, makes a request to citizens generally to report at the Enrolling Office, No. 82 Broadway, any errors or imperfections which they may have observed in the enrollment.

—A dispatch to The Gazette, from Indianapolis, states that an army officer, just arrived from Washington, says that he read an order while in the War Department on Friday, relieving Gen. Buell from command in Kentucky, and assigning him to Indianapolis to organize paroled prisoners into regiments. No such news has transpired at Washington.

GENERAL NEWS.

—By the arrival of the Europa, off Cape Race on Sunday morning, we have European dates to Sept. 21, which is two days later than the news by the Anglo-Saxon. The English papers were discussing the Slavery question, The Daily News predicting the demands the Slave Power would make if successful, with regard to the foreign slave-trade, while The Times denounces beforehand a decree of emancipation, which seems to have been generally expected in England. Mr. Laing, in reply to an address of a Chamber of Commerce, stated that not more than one million and a quarter of bales of cotton could be exported from India during the next twelve months; he hoped, however, that the South would soon be recognized by Europe, and the war cease. Jute, which has been recently making so great a sensation in commercial circles, as a supposed substitute for cotton, has been authoritatively pronounced too brittle for that purpose. La France, of Paris, pretends to know that a majority of the Cabinet of Juarez have agreed upon proposing to the French army terms of capitulation. The eminent English physician who has been sent from England to Garibaldi, has made a favorable report on Garibaldi's wound.

—In the Board of Councilmen, last night, the Corporation Council was directed to obtain an injunction to restrain the Seventh-avenue Railroad Company from laying rails in certain streets of the city unless authorized to do so by the Common Council. The Controller communicated that he had issued bonds for the amount of $238,000, and had paid in bounties $223,500. The payment of bounties being limited to 30 days after the Mayor's proclamation, the Controller recommends further action by the Board if they deem it necessary to continue them. Shepherd F. Knapp sent in a communication announcing his determination to continue acting as Street Commissioner until deposed by proper legal authority.

—Amelia Thompson, a colored (dark colored) woman, murdered her husband, Joseph P. Thompson, by cutting his throat with a razor. The deceased had separated himself from his wife, and was living with another woman. Thither his wife repaired, and found him in bed. After some conversation, she drew the razor from her pocket, and, springing toward him, cut his throat. The deceased leaped from his bed and followed her a few feet, but becoming exhausted from loss of blood, fell, and expired almost immediately. Amelia then proceeded to the Station-House of the Fifth Precinct, where she delivered herself up.

—Mr. James Brooks addressed, and Isaiah Rynders was cheered by, a Democratic Union Association up Broadway last night. Luke P. Cozzano, one of the few members of the late Assembly who daily and hourly preached submission to the South and voted against arming the State, was the fitting President on the occasion. Mr. Brooks made elaborate efforts to establish himself as a martyr, and paraded his person—like Mark Twain in "London Assurance"—begging somebody or something to kick him. Nobody thought it worth while, however; and Mr. B. passed on unmolested and uncheered, doubtless very greatly to his own disappointment.

—At the meeting of the Board of Aldermen last night, the Mayor nominated Fred. Law O'Connell for the office of Street Commissioner, which was rejected on motion of Mr. Boole. A communication was received from Shepherd Knapp stating that he had not been officially notified of his removal from office, that he intended to remain until the expiration of his term, and that he designed contesting the matter before a court of law.

—A large fire happened in Lexington, Ky., on the 26th inst. It broke out at the corner of Short and Limestone streets, destroying every house on both sides of the street for two squares north of Limestone street, including the Bank of Kentucky, the Northern Bank, the Post-Office, Mr. Wolverson's residence, and a livery stable. The origin is unknown; loss several thousands of dollars.

—Three hundred Sioux Indians, under Little Crow, attacked Col. Sibley's command on the 23d inst. The battle lasted two hours, resulting in the capture of the Indians, with the loss of 30 killed, and a large number wounded. Four whites were killed, and from 30 to 40 wounded.

STATE OF THE MARKETS.

The market was characterized by more activity and strength than was ever before witnessed. This remarkable buoyancy extends to every description on the list, and speculation is rampant. The rise again averages 2 1/2 per cent. Stocks displaying unexampled strength, resulting from the large advance in the price of the silver dollar, the price is greater than when stocks were 2 1/2 per cent lower. The Government list is stronger, advanced bids made in 16, 16 1/2, 100, Coupons, 1868, 1869, 1871, 1872, 1873, 1874, 1875, 1876, 1877, 1878, 1879, 1880, 1881, 1882, 1883, 1884, 1885, 1886, 1887, 1888,
